We, the undersigned, call on the U.S. Army to end discrimination against the Sikh identity and allow Captain Kamaljit Singh Kalsi and Second Lieutenant Tejdeep Singh Rattan to serve with their turbans, unshorn hair and beards intact. Sikhs have historically shown that they are capable of fulfilling their responsibilities in the US army without being forced to choose between their religion and service. The Sikh physical identity has never hindered Sikhs from effectively fulfilling their service in militaries world-wide.
